TROY

Troy is an ancient site located near Canakkale in northwest Turkey. The city of Ancient Troy was built at a strategic point on the Dardanelle strait, which connects the Aegean Sea with the Marmara Sea.

Troy forms a basis for Homer's Iliad, written some 500 years after the Trojan War. Ancient Troy holds a unique position in history, literature and archaeology. The site of ancient ruins of Troy became a UNESCO World Heritage site in 1998.

Visit the Trojan horse that appeared in the Oscar-nominated movie Troy. Imagine yourself in a mythological legend with Achilles, Hector, Paris and the beautiful Helen. Visit the ancient site Troy.

Visit the WW1 battlefields of Gallipoli including Lone Pine and Chunuk Bair Memorials, ANZAC Cove, The Nek, Johnston's Jolly, original trenches and tunnels destinations. Visit Gallipoli National Park, the war memorials, along with cemeteries.
