EPHESUS

Ephesus, the capital of the ancient city of Anatolia, is an extremely splendid metropolis. This mega ancient city, whose unique architectural monuments have been standing for thousands of years, has entered the World Heritage List. Based on Anatolia's mother goddess (Kybele) tradition, the Temple of Artemis, one of the Seven Wonders of the ancient world, also increases the importance of Ephesus. The most famous remains identified with Ephesus Archaeological Site is the "The Library of Celcus", which is breathtaking with its enormous columns.

The Hadrian Gate and the Temple of Hadrian are among the prominent structures on Kuretter Street, built in the name of Emperor Hadrian. The other ruins worth seeing are; one of the Seven Wonders of the ancient world, the biggest theatre in Anatolia, a stadium, the terrace houses, trade and state Agoras, the Temple of Hestia (Holy fire), an Odeon and the ancient harbor.

Don't miss to visit St John Basilica, the Grotto of Seven Sleepers and Virgin Mary's house. There are plenty of beauties that could not fit into this page.

Take your time in the cozy town of Sirince, where you'll admire the stone-and-stucco houses adorned with red-tiled roofs. An example of a blend of Turkish and Greek cultures, some of these traditional houses are open to visitors, so don't miss the chance to chat with locals.

Stop by a local vineyard house to taste some homemade fruit wine.
